New Philippine President Sickly

Quirino Known to Favor Firm Foreign Policy; Sound Home Plan

Manila, April 17 (AP)—The new president of the Philippine republic, Elpidio Quirino, told a university audience today he is "living on borrowed time."

Quirino began his first day as chief executive by appointing himself an honorary Doctor of Laws degree. Coincidentally, Filipino voters on the 30th day of mourning for Manuel Roxas, their first president under independence, who was killed in a state April 25.

Quirino's reference to his own health was prompted by the death of Roxas, unexpected death, from a heart attack, suffered by Clark Field during the invasion of the U. S. in 1945.

Quirino, president told the university audience he could not, in his position, say dear and goodbye to those who remain in the Philippines, "because I am not a doctor."

He said he would be told reporters that he was a "strong foreign policy" and "sound home policy" and that he would be told the mourning for Roxas, shortly after his death, in a simple ceremony.

Plan Started Four Years Ago Gets Approval of New York State

Commissioner of Education Francis T. Spaulding has made an order approving the centralization of schools in the towns of Olive, Woodstock, Shandaken, Marlinton and Hurley in Ulster county and Lexington in Greene county.

This movement was started some four years ago by a group of interested citizens of the towns of Olive, Shandaken and Woodstock.

At first it was planned to bring to the centralization all of the schools of the township of Woodstock but there was considerable opposition to that plan by Woodstock people and the commissioner declined to consider the inclusion of those districts in the centralization plan. The present approval for centralization excludes the districts at Woodstock, Bearsville, Zena and Shandaken.

The approval of Commissioner Spaulding to the centralization plan, dated April 13, contemplates the forming of Central School District No. 1 of the towns of Olive, Shandaken, Woodstock, Marlinton, Hurley and Lexington in Greene county.

No New Leads On Burglaries

Police Investigating Thefts at O'Reilly's and Canfield's

No new leads have been uncovered as to the identity of the person or persons who entered and burglarized O'Reilly's office equipment store and the Canfield Supply Company warehouse on Broadway Thursday night, Acting Chief of Police Raymond Van Buren reported today.

The burglars escaped with about $3,000 worth of cameras, fountain pens and pencils from the O'Reilly store and a small amount of cash piled from a cash register in the Canfield store, sometime Thursday night or early Friday morning. Entrance was made through a sky-light in O'Reilly's and through a collar window in Canfield's. The two stores adjoin each other on Broadway between the railroad tracks and Deland street.

Detectives of the local police department are continuing their investigation, Chief Van Buren said.

U.S. Rejects Red Plebiscite Bid On German Unity

Berlin, April 17 (AP)—The United States rejected today a Communist request for a plebiscite on the question of German unity.

The rejection was accompanied by a warning to the German people against "the kind of unity that brings economic and political slavery."

The "People's Congress," a Communist-controlled organization recognized only by the Soviet Military Administration, asked for permission to conduct the plebiscite in the U. S. zone.

Mr. Gen. George P. Hays, deputy American military governor, rejected the request. He said the congress represented only a small percentage of the German people and never has been approved by the Allied Control Authority.

The congress sent a similar request to the British and French.

Meanwhile, in Frankfurt, American authorities announced the second increase in the basic ration for the British-American zones in two months. The May ration will be 1,593 calories daily, compared with 1,561 in April. Previously it was 1,550.

In another phase of the German picture British sources said the Russians had made a last effort to meet again with the British to investigate the April 5 collision of a British transport and Soviet fighter plane.

House Members Shy Away From Segregation Ban

Armed Services Group Also Are Reluctant to Write in Any Broad Deference

By HOWARD DOBSON

Washington, April 17 (AP)—House Armed Services Committee members today shied away from putting a flat ban on racial segregation into a draft law.

They also showed reluctance to write in any broad deference to scientists, technicians or engineers.

Both matters, several members told reporters, should be left to administrators of the law.

As it stands now the bill before the committee would give the President wide authority to defer men because of occupational or professional skills.

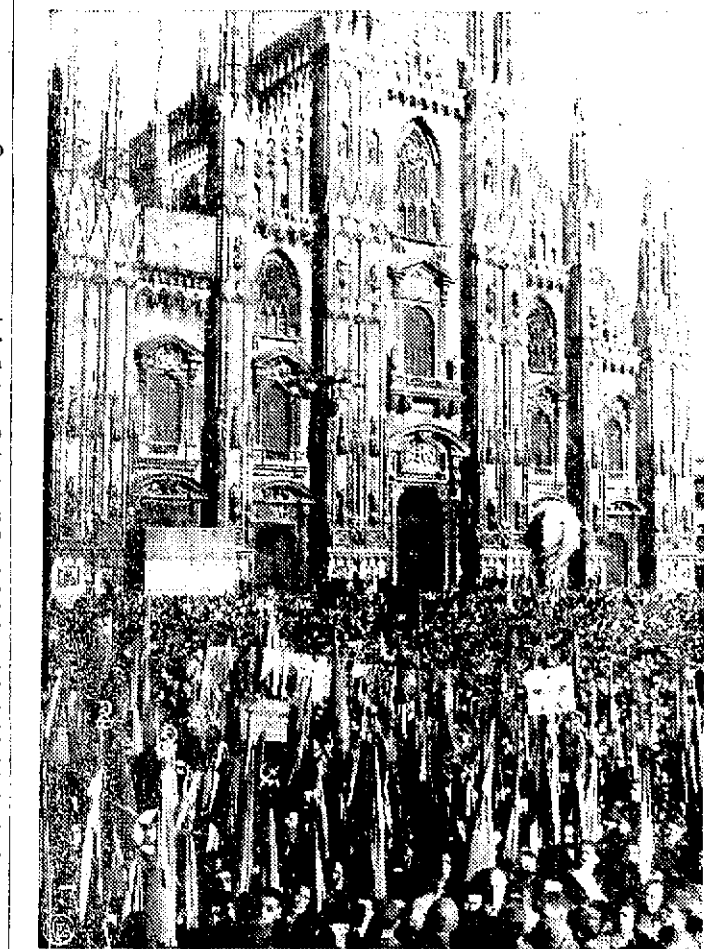

Aides said the committee tentatively has decided to boost the army's manpower ceiling from 782,000 to 837,000. And the army, preparing for a possible increase in strength, prepared to poll reserve officers to learn how many are willing to return to active duty.

Gen. Omar Bradley, army chief of staff, told the committee this week that the 837,000 figure would be needed to keep up with the air force if that service is expanded from 35 to 70 groups.

The Senate Appropriations Committee will begin hearings next week on a $4,138,100,000 House-approved bill to start the air force toward the larger figure.

Another Senate group, the Armed Services Committee, will hear Secretary of Defense Forrestal present defense estimates on Monday.

Last Minute Appeal

Italian Communists, reportedly facing defeat in Sunday's general election, make a last minute appeal before a crowd of 30,000 in Piazza del Duomo, in Milan, party stronghold in northern Italy. Communists Striving to Oust Rule of Christian Party

By FRANK O'BRIEN

Rome, April 17 (AP)—Italy's interior minister held out a threat today to suspend this week-end's fateful election "if the liberty of the vote should be compromised."

The election tomorrow and Monday, seating the first Parliament of the Italian Republic, will test whether Italy is to line up with Russia or the west.

A Popular Front led by the Communists has striven to oust a moderate coalition government under the Christian Democrats.

Public security forces variously announced as between 300,000 and 400,000 guarded the election-eve peace the country over today.

Mario Scelba, whose Interior Ministry controls police, said in his last campaign speech here last night.

"The government will be on the watch. If the liberty of the vote should be compromised, it would not hesitate to take the most radical measures, even the suspension of the elections."

He repeated his oft-made charge that Genoa's Communist mayor had issued 30,000 false voting certificates, three to Soviet employes of the Genoa Russian Consulate.

Looks Bad for Reds

But he said the government's recent show of strength had "removed fear" from the minds of Italians. He said measures have been taken "to assure that the election will take place in an atmosphere of freedom."

The speedmaking campaign ended, apparently in peace, last night and a 32-hour pre-election cooling-off period began under a cabinet decree forbidding further political meetings.

The authoritative Rome newspaper, l'Espresso, quoted Christian Democrat Premier Alcide De Gasperi as saying in a Naples interview last night he thought his party would do better this time than in the Constituent Assembly election of June 6, 1946.

In that election, it polled 35.2 per cent of the vote and elected 207 of 555 deputies.

Both De Gasperi and Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti spoke in the windup of campaigning.

Cullum's Nose Broken by Ball

Struck by Thrown Baseball at Practice Session of K.H.S. Nine

Robert Cullum, 13, received a broken nose during a practice session of the Kingston High School baseball team at Hasbrouck Park Friday afternoon, Coach Willard A. Burke said today. Cullum is assistant manager of the team.

The boy is the son of Police Sergeant and Mrs. James Cullum of 63 Henry street. After receiving his injury, the boy was taken to his home. His parents later took him to the Deschamps Hospital where he was treated by Dr. William J. Cranston. He was kept in the hospital overnight and returned home this morning.

Cullum told his parents he was struck by a thrown baseball.

Adirondack Transit Asks N.Y.-Massena Fare Hike

Albany, N. Y., April 17 (AP)—Adirondack Transit Lines, Inc., seeks permission for fare increases that officials estimate would yield $40,000 a year.

The New York-Massena bus line is operating at a loss because of rising costs, representatives of the firm said yesterday at a Public Service Commission hearing.

They proposed to raise regular fares about 10 percent and New York state and to boost the minimum from 10 cents to 15. Increases in commutation fares would range from 10 to 30 percent.

Tickets to and from New York city would remain at present prices. The company's route into the city crosses the New Jersey line.

The hearing will be resumed May 25.

Mail Train Plows Into Stalled Express; Seven Passenger Coaches Are Wrecked

Crew, England, April 17 (AP)—A Glasgow-London mail train plowed into a stalled express near here today, killing 22 persons, and injuring 28 others in the splintered wreckage of seven passenger coaches.

Survivors said a passenger had stopped the express 20 minutes before by pulling an emergency cord. They did not say why.

The wreck—worst since Britain's railways passed into government hands Jan. 1—occurred at 12:40 a. m., British Summer Time (8:40 p. m., E.S.T., Friday) near Winsford, Cheshire.

A British railways press officer said the mail train hit the rear of the London-bound express. Winsford is about 150 miles northwest of London.

Seven coaches of the passenger train were wrecked and four coaches of the mail train derailed. The survivors said the mail train tore through the coaches at high speed.

Rescuers, working by improvised lights, dug into the wreckage for injured, who could be heard screaming. Water was sprayed to protect rescuers from possible fires as they hacked their way through the wreckage.

No Indication Either Faction Will Abide by Security Council Order

By LARRY HAUCK

Lake Success, April 17 (AP)—The United Nations Security Council today told the Jews and Arabs to stop fighting in Palestine, but there is no indication either faction will abide by the order.

The council laid down six specific truce directives to the two factions but at the last minute killed a provision to send a U. N. commission to the Holy Land to check on compliance.

The final vote came at 2:19 a. m. after five and a half hours of debate and paragraph-by-paragraph balloting. The emergency right session started only a few hours after adjournment of the first meeting of a special general assembly session on the Palestine problem.

Russia refused to support the truce proposal but Andrei A. Gromyko withheld his big-power veto and abstained. The Soviet Ukraine joined Russia as usual. This made the final ballot 9 to 0.

Four provisions were passed unanimously. On two, Russia and the Ukraine abstained.

There was no assurance that either the Jewish agency for Palestine or the Arab higher committee, representatives of Palestinian Jews and Arabs, would lay down their arms. Direct efforts to bring them together failed previously and the council drafted detailed truce terms in a move to get their acceptance and bring peace to the Holy Land.

As mandatory power in Palestine, the British have the responsibility.

Editors Will Listen To Truman Report

Washington, April 17 (AP)—President Truman was due today to give a personal report to some 30 of the nation's topflight newspaper editors.

Mr. Truman's address tonight will climax the three-day session of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. A part of his talk was to be broadcast, the rest was to be off the record.

The newsmen also were to hear another closed door talk by Secretary of Defense Forrestal at a luncheon meeting.

Before winding up their annual convention the A.S.N.E. members stated the election of officers and consideration of resolutions. Edwin D. Canham, editor of the Cleveland News, as president.

Topics at the meetings have ranged from policy to technical matters, but major attention has been directed toward problems of national security, and the newspapers' role in helping protect it while safeguarding freedom of the press.

Reds Tardy Again

Berlin, April 17 (AP)—The Russians made a tardy effort to meet again with the British to investigate the collision of a British transport and a Soviet fighter plane April 5. British sources said today. They said the Russian note, expressing willingness to hear all witnesses after expert evidence is given, came too late to be taken as a sincere effort to cooperate.

Best Faces Death

Boston, April 17 (AP)—Robert H. Best, a native of Sumter, S.C., today faced a possible death sentence for treason in broadcasting Nazi propaganda from Germany during the war. A Federal Court jury convicted the former European news correspondent yesterday—his 52nd birthday—of all 12 overt acts contained in the government's indictment.

Stiff Fight Shaping Up in Ohio Contest

Washington, April 17 (AP)—While Republicans in Idaho held a party meeting to pick 12 delegates to the national convention, main political interest centered today on a G.O.P. primary two weeks off.

A stiff fight was shaping up in the May 4, Ohio contest, where Harold E. Stassen and Senator Robert A. Taft are due to lock horns. Taft last night suddenly abandoned a scheduled speaking tour in Vermont to concentrate on the coming battle in his home state.

The Idaho political event was one of two on tap for today. The other was in Kentucky, where Democratic John A. Whitaker is unopposed in a special Congressional election for the seat of late C. Clements, now the state's governor.

Today's G.O.P. delegates are expected to go to the Philadelphia nominating convention without instructions. But the Ohio election may test the strength of the slaves entered.

Stassen, who looms large in the nationwide Republican race following decisive victories in Wisconsin and Nebraska, has entered contests for 23 of Ohio's 53 delegates.

Medical Society Endorses Ulster County Cancer Drive

Chairman Eugene B. Carey of the county campaign for the American Cancer Society has received the following communication from Dr. Francis E. O'Connor, chairman of the Ulster County "Tumor Committee":

Hon. Eugene B. Carey, Chairman
American Cancer Society
Ulster County Branch
292 Fair Street
Kingston, New York

Dear Mr. Carey:

The Ulster County Medical Society wishes to express its appreciation of the interest and manner in which you have accepted the Chairmanship of the County Campaign for the American Cancer Society in the drive for $14,000. Your outline of plans and procedure for the drive already indicates the purpose will be understood by the community and its success appears encouraging.

It seems that the need and urgency for the support of the Cancer Campaign by all in the county should not have to be emphasized. The incidence of cancer is now one out of eight. Ulster County has one of the highest morbidity rates of any in New York State. This is partly due to the increasing number of people from the Metropolitan area.

The BRISTOL

Size 25' x 37'-6"
Cubage with full basement 18,000'
Cubage with half basement 14,000'

To obtain a livable four room house is a problem. One of the best answers we know of is the Bristol. The exterior beauty and simplicity are outstanding. This house will fit on almost any lot. The construction details are fundamentally correct. Enclosed entry with closet space opens into the beautiful living room which is shown to its best advantage by the large bay window and corner fireplace. Kitchen arrangement is ideal with its cozy nook, ample cupboard and closet space. Ventilator opens into flue to remove cooking odors. Plenty of light and cross ventilation are provided. Take special notice of the large pleasant bedrooms with adjoining bath. The dressing alcove is a dream. Notice the splendid furniture placement and square rooms. Either full or half basement may be provided. Alternate floor plan is suggested. This is just the house you have been looking for.

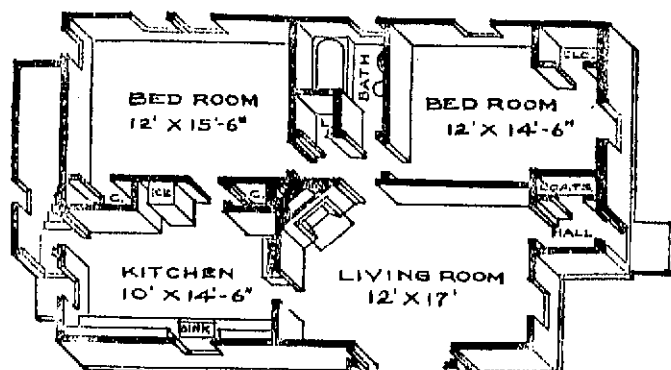

'Home of Week' Plan Is Meeting Popular Demand

Living Room With Corner
Fireplace Also May
Be Used as a Dining Room

Readers and building contractors have at last recognized the fact that the great demand in this country today is for small, low-cost homes. That such structures need not be lacking in external charm and interior appointments is convincingly demonstrated in the four-room cottage which the Architects' Co-operative Plan Service introduces today.

This house, named "The Bristol," has a cubic content of 18,000 feet, with brass piping, copper window screens, hardwood floors, modern plumbing fixtures and steam heating system recommended by the architect. And if the builder desires to cut corners in construction and equipment the Bristol offers several possibilities in that direction.

Half Basement Possible
For example, instead of a full basement, a half basement could be built, bringing the cost down considerably. As shown in the

FIRST FLOOR PLAN

Plans, specifications, and material lists, are available.

Providence, R. I.

accompanying sketch, the cottage has a stone finish around the entrance; the other outside walls may be surfaced with painted shingles or clapboards and the gable ends with tongue and grooved siding, nailed vertical, to give an appearance of height to the house.

The amount of cut stone and masonry work required around the entrance is not great and this extra outlay is warranted by the improvement the stonework makes in the appearance of the house. Where the building budget is limited, however, owners might be willing to sacrifice the stone treatment, the dressing alcove adjoining the master bedroom, and the large bay-window of the living room. Anticipating such economies, the designers offer an alternate floor plan.

Designed for a small family, The Bristol is quite properly a small house. Its outside dimensions are 25x37.6 feet and it can be placed on a narrow lot. The rooms, however, are of satisfactory size.

The living room is 17.6x12 feet and has for its dominant feature a corner fireplace. Equipped with a circulating heating unit, this fireplace could effectively heat the entire house in spring and fall.

Efficient Kitchen

Adjoining the living room which also serves as a formal dining room on occasion is the kitchen. This room is efficiently laid out. In one plan, a corner of the room might have a built-in seat and table for everyday meals. An alternate plan could substitute a built-in breakfast nook. The location of the kitchen range suggests installation of an overhead hood and flue, to draw cooking odors into the chimney. A broom and utility closet is located beside the chimney stack.

Off the kitchen is a small rear service entry, from which stairs descend to the basement. A door between kitchen and the rear bedroom gives better circulation from room to room. This is especially desirable for a family with children, giving the youngsters access to their room, from the rear entry, without passing through the living room.

Between the rear bedroom and master bedroom at the front of the house is a small hall, which also communicates with the living room. In this hall a linen closet is provided and, located between the bedrooms, is the bathroom with built-in tub with overhead shower, and other modern fixtures.

Master Bedroom

The master bedroom is 14.6x11.6 feet in measurement and is adjoined by a dressing alcove.

At one end of this is a large clothes closet that could be cedar lined. This dressing space is missing in the alternate plan, though the closet remains. In either plan, the bedroom is provided with windows on two sides for cross ventilation. In the rear bedroom, a large mullion window provides good light and air.

The main entrance has an inviting simplicity, in keeping with the general design of the house. A glazed upper half in the door lights the small entry within. Here a coat closet awaits the guests' wraps.

In the gable ends at front and rear, an octagonal window for better light and ventilation of the attic space. Insulation here, and in outside walls, should be given consideration at the time of original construction.

Plans Available

Complete plans for "The Bristol," the Home of the Week, or any other design of this series may be obtained at moderate cost.

To ascertain exact price of these documents, write to the Home Building Editor, Kingston Daily Freeman, and enclose a self-addressed envelope bearing a three-cent stamp. At least one week should be allowed for a reply.

Dining Alcove Size

Q. I would like to build a dining alcove in my kitchen if I can find the space. What is the least amount of space that can be used and still allow for a convenient alcove?

A. It depends on whether the table and chairs are to be portable or built in. In the former type dining alcove the minimum desirable size is seven feet six inches square. In the second type an area four feet six inches by five feet will suffice.

Proper Window Sizes Very Important Factor

When the modernization of a house is contemplated, the size of the windows is a point to be considered. Small windows, unless they are on the sunny side of the house, are often inadequate for the proper lighting of a room. Small panes of glass in the sash are also less efficient than a window with single or double panes.

Study Fuel Service Before Buying House

Prospective home owners should make a careful study of the costs of the fuels and service available in the community in which they plan to buy a residence. The degree of comfort and the convenience to be expected from individual fuels should be balanced against the relative costs. A logical choice of the fuel to be used for heating, cooking, and other uses may then be made.

Paint Linen Shelves

Painted shelves are the best solution for the linen closet. Then when one wishes to pull out sheets, pillow cases, etc., from the bottom of the piles, one does not pull out the shelf paper along with it.

Mendelssohn Sings
Refreshing Music
In 45th Concert

Mendelssohn Club sang in quite a different vein from its concerts of recent years as it presented its 45th annual program in Kingston High School Friday night. The music was light, gay, and fresh. The club's usual repertoire of serious music was replaced by a good feeling, Robert Williams of Newburgh was the conductor.

The chorus was larger this year and the tone improved. The parts were arranged in different standing order which may have given it a more compact and balanced feeling. The mass setting did a number of solo parts. All of the singers truly seemed to enjoy singing.

Paul Matthen, bass-baritone, was guest soloist and sang three groups of solos. His enunciation was fine and quality of tone production was good. His interpretation of the songs was very pleasing. Especially fine were his renditions of "Faint" and "Serenade from Mozart's 'Don Giovanni'".

His first group were from standard vocal songs: "When You Walk by Handel's Pilgrims' Song," "Tschakovsky's," and "Dedication." The bass quality of his voice was most evident in the Negro spirituals, "I'm So Glad and Lord, I Want to Be." He also chose Gershwin's "I Got Plenty of Nuts," the second part of which he turned and sang for the benefit of the club.

His second group were from the popular song about Mother Hubbard and her Cupboard; and the Negro style story of David and Goliath. Claiter v. g. Thomas received much applause for her accompaniment.

Even the first number of the concert, Bach's "My Spirit Be Joyful," though in a nature, was filled with a refreshing vigor. This was followed by Jacques Wolf's Spring Ploving and the two gay Slavic folk songs. Entirely different in their soft shadings and gentle meanings, the second group opened with Come to Me in My Dreams by Noble Cain and Muriel Zepher. Jensen-Bensel, the latter one including a tenor solo by John A. McCullough. According to the program notes, Mr. Bensel, the arranger, was for many years a resident of Platteville and is also composer of the tune "The Windy Night by Townsley-Stevens" was sung in contrast to rapid tempo. For an encore to the group, the club sang Wayne's Night Song by Martin Satter.

Two other quiet numbers were sung with exquisite shadings followed by Cadman's Glory and the encore Invictus, Hahn. The club concluded with two humorous songs, one about Doctor Foster who went to Gloucester in the rain and "stepped in a puddle up to his middle." The second was the familiar "Mad Fox and Englishman." In closing Gilbert and Sullivan's "Entrance and March of the Peers" from Iolanthe was chosen with all of its trappings and sang Joons imitating the band.

The accompaniment was played by Samuel D. Scudder joined by Paul Barnum for several of the selections requiring four hand accompaniment. As is tradition both were excellent. As a closing and appropriate encore the club sang "Howdy Do Miss Springtime" by Gilon.

Then and Now
A thousand years ago, or so, a wilderness was here. The man with powder in his horn went forth to hunt the deer. But times have changed somewhat, and so.

Upon a different plane, the deer with powder on her nose goes forth to hunt her mate!

Here's a simple lesson in arithmetic. Traffic accidents multiply, a man's worries divide his money, add to his discomfort and subtract from his family's happiness. Be sure to be alert, be careful for soundness of body and long life.

Gardening
Gardening was man's first occupation and Adam and Eve would probably have done very well at it if they had only shaved their heads. For it seems, don't you like to work in a garden. Perhaps Adam spoiled it for them.

There is tremendous emphasis being put on the problem of the careless driver, but, of course, the great majority are careful and do not become involved in accidents. Often it is the alertness of the careful driver which prevents accidents which would be caused by other's carelessness.

The Joyrider isn't half as necessary to this world as the Joy-maker.

The husband eyed his wife over the hotel dinner table in puzzled surprise.

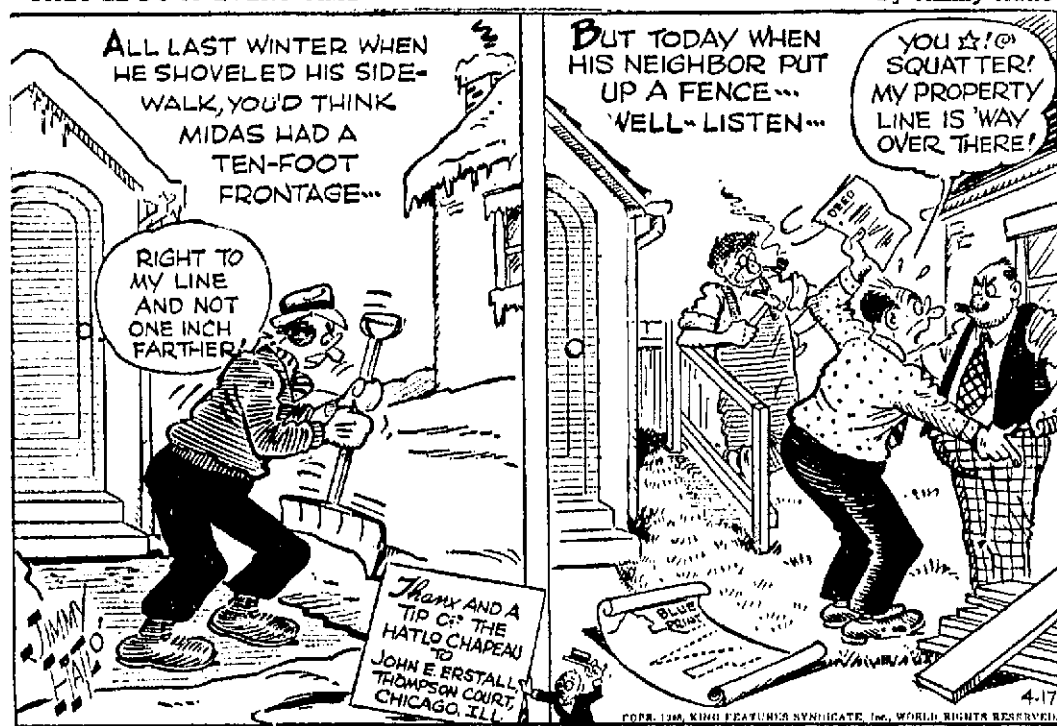

"That's a beautiful necklace you're wearing, my dear," he said. "Yes, isn't it, darling?" replied wife. "I found it in the back of your car."

Marriage is a good institution and it calls for celebration. But extensive honking should be left to its original and most eloquent performers of the art. We mean geese.

Outlines Control Aids
A spray program to control fruit diseases and insects in the home garden is outlined in Cornell Bulletin E-665 which has just been revised. Free copies are available to New York gardeners from the Mailing Room, Roberts Hall, Ithaca, N. Y.

In The Pocket

with CHARLIE TIANO

Detroit, Mich., April 17 (SB)—This is it. By midnight a waiting world will know whether or not Kingston, N. Y., has produced the 1948 A.B.C. tournament bowling champions.

(Editor's Note)—More than likely the best scores will be rolled after midnight.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

Fred Rice predicts that his 49ers will shoot a 990 aggregate average in the proposed four-city league next fall. . . . Hi Phillips would say: Wama bet? . . . The experts on the golf forum Monday night couldn't answer the question of what happens when a golfer drives off the women's tee on No. 3 hole at Twaalfskill. . . . Alex Gerlak spent a good part of the winter studying bowling forms, hooks and curves at the Central Recs. . . . He is readying for an assault on the maples next year.

Generosity of the Kingston bowlers is traditional. In the recent Bowlers Victory Legion drive, the local men headed by Addison Jones collected $300 which ranked Kingston tenth in the national standings. . . . This is an excellent record when you consider the larger populations of all the big bowling centers in the U. S. . . . Newburgh's Al Christ, well known league pitcher who has been Class C ball interested in a job with the Kingston Colonials. . . . Bill Lehman getting anxious out in New Paltz. . . . The ex-Giant would like to take a fling in the outfield.

Native and rainbow trout are wanderers according to fishing experts. . . . As they grow in size, they continually shift their habitat, moving downstream from time to time, and leaving their old places for the smaller fish. . . . A split bamboo rod possesses power equal to any other rod and is from 33 to 50 per cent lighter. . . . So say the Horrocks-Thibouton experts.

Out Goes the Neck:

Bill Fay, the Collier's baseball expert, picks the New York Giants, of all people, to win the National League pennant! Other Fayesque quotes: "Joe DiMaggio's battle with Ted Williams will be one of the highlights of the season. . . . Art Houtteman of the Tigers and Bob Lemon of the Indians could be 30-game winners. . . . Warren Spahn of the Braves has an outside chance to win 30 games. . . . Ralph Kiner of the Pirates will overshadow Johnny Mize in this third year of their three-year battle for home run supremacy. . . . Present standing, Kiner 74, Mize 78. . . . Harry Walker of the Phils, who topped National League hitters with a .363 average last year, will not retain his title—may even slump below .300.

Good Fighting Men Come Scarce:

Dr. Saul Goldfarb and Joe Kelly have reached an impasse trying to dig up suitable opposition for stalwarts like Coley Wallace and Tony Barone. . . . About the only fighters who are willing to mix it with either of those toughies are Negroes. . . . Dr. Goldfarb sensibly enough shies away from all-Negro bouts. . . . Yet there isn't a white amateur heavyweight around who will take on the N.Y.U. student. . . . The logical opponents. . . . Willie Champion and Paul Simpson of Cleveland and Terry Teague of Buffalo are Negroes. . . . Goldfarb would like to see a good white fighter against Barone. . . . Try to find one! When they get that good they enter the pro ranks.

Speaking of Records: In the American League: Most years as a player, Eddie Collins, 25. . . . Most games played, Ty Cobb, 3,033. . . . Most consecutive games, Lou Gehrig, 2,130. . . . Most runs batted in single game, Tony Laverie, 11. . . . Most hits in succession, Pinky Higgins, 12. . . . Most consecutive games batting safely, Joe DiMaggio, 56. . . . Most home runs one game, Lou Gehrig, 4. . . . Most bases on balls in season, Babe Ruth, 170. . . . Most strikeouts, Gus Williams, St. Louis, 194, 129. . . . Highest lifetime batting average, Ty Cobb, .367.

"Bo" Gill, Newburgh sports ed just back from a three-week tour to the coast, ran flush into a camera bulb explosion in Poughkeepsie and was rendered hors de combat.

Leave us not understate the West Shore baseball entry in the City League, warns Manager "Packer" Davis. . . . "We'll be bigger and better," says Davis. Are you listening, Morgan's and Jones Dairy?

MULLIGAN MIKE SAYS: The Army and Navy now have available anthropometric charts which make possible the fitting of uniforms to almost any type of figure. In other words there will be other sizes besides the old standbys "too big" or "too small."

Queen to Enter W. I. B. C. Finals With 4th Best Average in Nation

Dark-haired Rose Schatzel, the bowling queen of Kingston, makes her second successive appearance as representative of District 4 (New York State and Dominion of Canada) in the 1948 Women's International Bowling Congress' Individual Sweepstakes finals in Dallas, Tex., tonight when she bowls in the regular W.I.B.A. nationals with an Aurora, Ill., squad.

Mrs. Schatzel, the only keggerette of last year's 12 finalists to repeat, departed for the Lone Star state Thursday night for the all-important sweepstakes finals which are scheduled for Monday in Dallas.

Piling up a brilliant 196.11 average for 17 games, the Queen won the coveted crown for the second straight year by placing over Pat Stage of Binghamton, who collected 3205 pins for a 188.11 average.

In last year's competition, Mrs. Schatzel finished fifth in the finals in Grand Rapids, Mich.

While representing District 4 in Dallas, Mrs. Schatzel also will be the first delegate ever to represent the Kingston Women's Bowling Association at a national convention.

Fourth in Nation

Mrs. Schatzel's hefty 196 plus average sending her to Dallas, was the fourth highest bowler in the nation. Katherine Engelhart, of Jeffersonville, Ind., set the pace with a tremendous 203.11 average for the route. Maxine Cruchon, Detroit's famed keggerette, shot 198.8 and Marie A. Bedney, of Owatonna, Minn., finished third with a 197.2 average.

Another bowler ready for the sweepstakes finals on Monday will be Jean "Mickey" Michaels, erstwhile New York state singles and all-events champion, who won the New Jersey-Pennsylvania title with a 192 average. She dropped a 20-game match to Mrs. Schatzel last season and then declined to compete in the New York state eliminations.

Although veteran trundlers are optimistic over Rose's chances in Monday's finals, three of her opponents in Dallas will be nationally ranked plank stars including Maxine Cruchon who is regarded as one of Detroit's best. Mickey Michaels is an established star while Phyllis Vogel, the California representative, is the only woman bowler with a 200 average throughout the nation today.

The complete field of district winners in the second annual W.I.B.C. sweepstakes, major division, according to districts, follows:

General Carpenter Memorial Service Here on Sunday

Memorial services for General George L. Carpenter, retired international leader of the Salvation Army, will be held in Kingston at 8 p. m. Sunday, April 18. It was announced by Captain George Gibb. Services will be under the direction of Sergeant Major Henry Miller.

General Carpenter, the fifth commander and wartime leader of the organization, died April 9 at Sydney, Australia. Elected to his post in August, 1939, he served until the present leader, General Albert Orsborn, was elected two years ago. Born June 30, 1872 in Raymond, Tennessee, Australia, he gave his early service in Melbourne as head of the Australian Editorial Department for six years. Transferred in 1911 to London, he traveled extensively in an editorial capacity with General William Booth, and later with General Bramwell Booth. For twelve years he was one of the latter's secretaries, with responsibility for literary affairs. Retransferred back to his native land, he served as chief secretary for Eastern Australia until 1933 when he was appointed territorial commander for the South American district. His last appointment before being elected general was in 1937, as territorial commander for Canada.

Elected general in 1939 on the eve of World War II, which continued during almost the entire period of his international leadership, he journeyed to many lands, including North and South America and the West Indies during the war and also Australia and New Zealand, and most continental countries.

Apart from his trip to Canada and the United States in 1942, the general, during the war, was kept out of direct communication with a large number of his forces. Many of his officers were interned and many more suffered hunger and all the privations of their people. One of the greatest blows was the destruction by enemy bombing of the International Headquarters in London. Such losses might have overwhelmed a less stalwart character, but Salvationists the world over were strengthened through these trials by the War Cry messages which weekly came from the general's desk. Whether on firm, steamer, in a motor car or on a railway, General Carpenter was seldom without writing materials and was the author of many religious articles, dealing with current problems. Long training as a Salvation Army editor and the head of the Literary department at International Headquarters gave him the literary skills, but his own spiritual calm and courage gave the messages their heart appeal.

General Carpenter is survived by his wife, the former Ensign Minnie Rowell, whom he married in 1899, and by a son, Adjutant George Carpenter, who is serving with the Salvation Army Relief team in Europe, and a daughter, Stella, of Sydney, Australia.

on the proposed Central School plan.

Must Be Approved
It will be necessary that the taxpayers of the various school districts included in the centralization plan approve the plan at this election.

Those who are sponsoring the centralization hope that this meeting can be set and the vote secured in time for the centralization plan to become effective on July first, if approved.

Following approval of the centralization plan the Central School District will then proceed to organize, a supervising principal, school nurse and other officers will be set up and the Central School District No. 1, will be administered by a nine-man board of education. The entire centralized district will have a common tax rate.

At present the plan calls for the erection of a central school in the vicinity of Boiceville or Mt. Tremper to which school children would be transported by school buses. This plan calls for high school facilities in the district.

Won't Build Now
Speaking for the plan, one of those interested said the plan at present is to erect a building to house the separate individual schools and the erection of a high school building would not be undertaken at this time pending lowered construction costs or the stabilization of costs.

However should the central district be approved the plan would become effective immediately and the various schools would next fall be under the single jurisdiction of the Board of Education and the central school district would in all effects be in force, including the common school tax rate.

In the town of Woodstock the schools at Willow, Wittenberg and Lake Hill are included in the plan, but the Bearsview, Woodstock, Shady and Zena school districts are excluded.

The Broadacre, Hollow and Butteville schools which lie partly in Greene county are included in the centralization plan. Two districts lying partly in Olive and Marbletown as well as one district lying partly in Olive and Hurley are included in the plan.

Were Against Move
Following the move some four years ago for a centralization a hearing was held before the Rapp Committee at which time it was proposed to erect a central school in the town of Olive, Shandaken and Woodstock. Citizens of Woodstock protested and expressed a desire to maintain their own schools at Woodstock village, Zena, Shady and Bearsview.

The committee declined to include the Woodstock four districts and the order now made excludes those districts.

terday, the French Government is expected to advance sufficient funds until an assessment program can be worked out among the member nations.

Marjolin said the new organization would be on a full-time operating basis by July 1, and meanwhile stop-gap bilateral agreements with Washington would cover aid shipments through June.

Marjolin emphasized that one of the most urgent tasks of the new organization is to liberate European commerce. The charter obliges member states to reduce international trade barriers and stabilize currencies to a point where they can be convertible freely.

A chief aim, too, said the secretary-general, is to reduce Europe's need for American aid and develop not only mutual trade with America, but trade with eastern Europe as well.

Marjolin, only 36, is a one-time professor of political economy. After the capitulation of France to Germany, he escaped to Britain in 1941 and was appointed executive of the French Purchasing Commission in the United States. He later was a director of foreign economic relations in the French Ministry of National Economy.

He has worked closely with Jean Monnet, author of the Monnet Plan for French industrial modernization. His most recent post in the French Government was chief deputy administrator of the Monnet Plan.

The railway press officer said both main lines probably would be blocked for 24 hours.

The casualty figures were issued by officials of the British Railways London Midland Region, on whose Scotland-London main lines the crash occurred.

Unofficial reports said the dead included a German war prisoner, an Olympic swimmer and an infant. Rescuers released a small dog from the wreckage. It was unharmed.

Arrested After Collision
Sanford Phillips, 58, of Ulster Park was arrested Friday evening by Deputy Sheriffs Joseph Haver and Ruy Winne following a collision with the car of Ann Mildred Von Der Leith of Rifton which was operated by Milton Von Der Leith. Phillips was charged with driving while intoxicated and was taken before Justice John O. Haver where an adjournment was taken until April 22 at 8 p. m. The accident happened near the Rock School and the damages were confined to the rear fender of the complainant's car.

P. G. English Returns
Patrick G. English of Kingston, supervisor for A&P Food Stores, returned this week from a five-day supervisory conference held in Newark, N. J. The conference program is designed for the discussion and exchange of ideas on the development and direction of modern super markets.

The second meeting to make plans for the "Courtesy Is Contagious" campaign will be attended by merchants and other business folk of Kingston on Monday at 8 p. m. in the Crystal Room of the Governor Clinton Hotel.

In announcing the session, Manager Robert Case of Rondo's Kingston Theatres, originator of the drive, said he hoped it would be well attended, and Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk joined with him. The mayor has endorsed the movement as beneficial to the city.

Aside from discussion of plans for the period of emphasis on courtesy, May 3 to 17, two moving pictures, on politeness will be screened at the Governor Clinton.

"We feel that the pictorial demonstrations on courtesy will emphasize the good that can come of this drive," Mr. Case said. He pointed out that some of the largest business firms of the nation have shown them for employees in order to promote good public relations.

At a recent meeting a goodly number of Kingston merchants heartily approved the courtesy drive and it is anticipated that many more will add their endorsement Monday.

Italian Elections

No incidents had been reported serious enough to prejudice the voting. But with reports the Front has slipped in recent weeks, rumors have thickened that the Communists would try to lighten the vote to their advantage by some means of intimidation.

The balloting will be for 574 members of the Chamber of Deputies and 237 senators to compose the first Parliament of the Italian republic born in 1946. The makeup of Parliament will determine the makeup of the government. Nearly 29,000,000 persons are registered to vote in 42,300 polling places.

Washington, April 17 (AP)—The western powers landed their final blow of the Italian election campaign today when they voted on Russia for a yes-or-no answer on the Trieste question.

Just six hours before the formal wind-up of the Italian campaign, in which the Communists are bidding for control, the United States, Britain and France in effect called on Moscow yesterday to quit stalling over their proposal to turn Trieste back to Italy.

Blame Put on Reds
The western demand served as a final reminder to millions of Italians voting Sunday that Russia blocks the way to the border city's return.

The closing diplomatic stroke clinched a long series of moves aimed at winning friends for western democracy in the strategic nation.

The greatest step in that direction was passage this month of the vast European recovery program, under which American supplies, shipped almost daily to Italy, U. S. shipments of food, coal and other aid to the Mediterranean country since V-J Day now total an estimated $1,900,000,000.

In another last-minute move, Attorney General Clark reminded Italians in a shortwave broadcast that this country had found it necessary to bar its doors to Communists.

And he appealed to the Italian people to return "a resounding victory for God and freedom" in Sunday's election.

Council Orders

sibility for bringing the Arabs and Jews together. Both factions declined comment here. Indications were that the British would deal with the two groups on the spot. There is no direct enforcement provision in the truce terms.

Grayson refused to support the plan because the council only rode his demands that Arab armed bands be ordered to leave Palestine. Only the Ukraine supported him. Russia also opposed a ban on political activity in the Holy Land.

The provision for a U. N. commission was also rejected. The delegates could not agree on the makeup of such a body. A vote finally was taken on a move to send three members of Secretary-General Trygve Lie's staff. It fell one vote short of the necessary seven when the United States, Argentina, Britain, Belgium and Syria abstained. The U. S. wants the consults in Jerusalem to serve on the commission.

The truce terms direct the Jews and Arabs to end all military activities, violence, terrorism and sabotage; refrain from bringing into Palestine armed bands and fighting personnel; stop importing weapons and war materials; and cease all political activity.

Government Accepting Job Applications

June high school graduates and other persons 18 years of age, may now file applications to take a civil service examination for permanent jobs as stenographers and typists with the federal government.

Further information on the examination and the necessary card for filing may be obtained from William N. Schwab, at the Kingston Post Office, or from the U. S. Civil Service Regional Office, at 401 Washington street, New York city.

The beginning typist is paid $1,554 a year for a 40-hour week. Stenographers start at $1,954 and $2,168. No specific experience or education is required but applicants must take a written examination, which includes a general test as well as a test of their typing and shorthand ability.

According to James E. Rosell, director of the New York office of the Civil Service Commission, any qualified applicant has a favorable chance for appointment because of the continuing need of government agencies.

Quarryville Strong For X-Ray Survey

Despite the rainy weather, muddy roads, and slippery pavements, the residents of Quarryville turned out wholeheartedly yesterday for the free chest X-ray survey being continued during the next two weeks in the township of Saugerties.

"Such an admirable response," stated Commissioner of Health George James, "indicates the high standard of community spirit which exists in Quarryville and also a personal interest among the residents in the health and welfare of themselves, their families, friends and neighbors."

"The mobile X-ray unit of the New York State Department of Health will continue to caravan throughout the township. The next stop," added Miss Bouck, "will be Glasco where we are expecting a one-hundred-percent turnout."

Interest Increases In Cancer Society

Just back from a 600-mile circuit of New York state on behalf of the American Cancer Society, Mrs. Harry VanWagonen of Kingston, commander of that organization's field army, reports accelerated interest in the cancer cause throughout the home state.

Her tour included an organizational roundup of Steuben, Chemung, Schuyler, Tompkins, Cortland, Chenango, Otsego and Albany counties. Throughout all of these locales she was successful in enlisting new representation in the ranks of the field army to carry on the educational program, which is an important part of the accomplishment of the American Cancer Society.

Flood Is Headed Toward Cincinnati

Cincinnati, O., April 17 (AP)—The Ohio river flood crest crept down on Cincinnati today while workers fought an around-the-clock battle against rising waters.

Newport city police predicted townspeople and 640 soldiers would win their fight to keep the Licking river from an area housing 10,000 persons. But, it was an enormous task.

Early today, weary workers had piled sandbags eight to 10 feet high for 2,000 feet, and would pile them a foot higher as added precaution. The Licking joins the Ohio near Cincinnati.

Four deaths were attributed directly to the flood.

The Red Cross at Cincinnati said last night that some 31,000 persons had been affected by the flood in Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Indiana.
